New Business:

-Sarah Patyk to step down as president and take the vice president position; Rikki Kinsella to become new PTC president and step down as treasurer; Amanda Bangert to step down as vice president and become treasurer; Catherine Lambert remains secretary. Any members who would like an officer position are always welcome to bring to the table for a vote.

-Fannie May fall fundraiser to start on 10/5/2021

-Discussed other possible fundraising ideas for spring: TGS socks, Dave's coffee cakes, candy bars, Culver's. Open to other ideas. Will vote on idea closer to spring.

-Garzanelli's has offered to do a chicken and spaghetti fundraiser, thinking November for this. We will have students pre-sell tickets and turn in money, then print tickets needed based on orders.

-Have 2 students in need of basic clothing items in our school. Rikki has been given a list of needed items and sizes. Members agreed upon $100 per kid to be spent closer to winter time. Shoes have already been purchased. Will get each kid a TGS hoodie. Members will be notified of needs for possible donations; referral to TUMC Closet of Hope.

-PTC donated 3 raffle baskets at open house, winners were Molly Thomson for Jr High, Clayton Briddick for grade 3-5, Dominic Baker for grade K-2

-No new requests for a large purchase item has been brought to our attention as of yet but we have asked staff to keep any ideas in mind that we can raise money for

-"Stock the Lounge" was done by PTC to welcome staff back at the beginning of the school year. Staff lounge was stocked with snacks, candy, school supplies, drinks and yogurt for the staff to enjoy

-Four new members signed up at the PTC table at the open house

-A donation was given by the Hillyer family in honor of Jeremy's late mother. Sarah will have plaque made in her honor

-Amazon wishlists were created by participating teachers for any classroom supply needs. Links were printed and available at the PTC table at the open house and also posted on the PTC Facebook page. Mr. Schneider to post on TGS website.
